

COMPILATION OF INDONESIAN REGULATIONS ON MINERAL AND COAL MINING

(JUNE 2018 - MARCH 2019)

Indonesia   English

The mining industry is important to Indonesia, which is considered as a global player as it holds major deposits of copper, gold, nickel, coal, bauxite and base metals. Despite the lingering uncertainty over the outlook of commodity prices, the recent rising price trend has triggered optimism that the industry will rebound as had occurred in the past. To help improve investment climate in the industry, the government has also simplified and streamlined regulatory framework for mining business activities.

This publication is aimed at disseminating an updated information regarding regulations on mineral and coal mining sector in Indonesia to the international community. Each regulation will be presented in dual language with Bahasa Indonesia and English versions appearing side-by-side on each page. This is a must-have book all investors, players and supporting businesses in Indonesian mining industry are waiting for.
